Many Congratulations to Val French for winning the Sunday Times Grassroots Sportswoman of the Year award in London last week.

Val French was also awarded the BEM in the New Years Honours for her tireless work in our community by supporting women of all ages to get cycling. Val continues to enhance the lives of so many others in our community through other projects with Pocklington Rugby in the community, providing a monthly coffee morning for elderly residents, pie and pud club for older men and of course the legendary free Christmas dinner deliveries and club house Christmas lunch for elderly people in Pocklington and surrounded villages. Val deserves recognition for all the time, compassion and energy that she pours into our local Community.

Best wishes to all Parishioners and Visitors, God Bless, Fr James
